THE PROPERTY

Available from 23rd January. Boasting arguably some of the finest panoramic views of London from Harrow on the Hill, this impressive top-floor apartment (with lift) combines contemporary living with historic charm. The accommodation comprises two double bedrooms, an en-suite shower room, main bathroom, split-level reception room, quality fitted kitchenette and a spiral staircase leading to a spacious landing, ideal for working from home. Further benefits include ample storage and a private terrace with spectacular views across the London skyline. Part of the apartment extends into the historic 'Garlands' building, Winston Churchill's boarding house during his time at Harrow School. With designated covered parking and extensive communal gardens, the property is ideally located within a short walk of Harrow's excellent shopping facilities and Metropolitan Line/BR Rail station. Available unfurnished. EPC Rating: D (68) Council Tax Band: F.
